

Hemingway-Pfeiffer Fall Writers' Retreat

November 14-16, 2019

HEMINGWAY-PFEIFFER
MUSEUM AND EDUCATIONAL CENTER
Piggott, Arkansas

The Hemingway-Pfeiffer Fall Writers' Retreat

The retreat offers adults the opportunity to work on personal creative writing, share their work, receive feedback, and interact with others interested in writing. Writers have the opportunity to work in the Barn-Studio where Ernest Hemingway wrote during visits to Piggott. Not all writers come with something in mind to write, but many do. The retreat is structured to be interactive, a time when friendships are formed, craft is honed, and creativity is enhanced. Writers contribute stories, poems, essays, etc., to the souvenir anthology printed for each participant.

C.D. Albin will serve as mentor for the retreat. Albin was born and reared in West Plains, Missouri. He earned a Doctor of Arts in English from the University of Mississippi and has taught for many years at Missouri State University—

West Plains, where he founded Elder Mountain: A Journal of Ozarks Studies. He is the author of the story collection Hard Toward Home (Press 53, 2016), which was awarded the Missouri Author Award in Fiction in 2017. He recently published a collection of poetry Axe, Fire, Mule (Golden Antelope Press, 2018). In addition, his fiction, poems, and reviews have appeared in a number of periodicals, including Arkansas Review, Cape Rock, Georgia Review, Harvard Review, Natural Bridge, and Slant.

The HP Educational Center

Daily sessions are held in the Educational Center adjacent to the Pfeiffer-Janes House. Participants may choose to write in the Educational Center, in the Barn-Studio, on the porches, on the patio, or on lawn areas. You may bring your own laptop computer or use one of the computer stations in the Educational Center.

Excerpt from Ernest Hemingway's acceptance speech for the 1954 Nobel Prize—Literature:

"For each writer each book should be a new beginning where he tries again for something that is beyond attainment. He should always try for something that has never been done or that others have tried and failed. Then sometimes, he will succeed. How simple the writing of literature would be if it were only necessary to write in another way that which has been well written."

Ernest and Pauline Hemingway's Paris Wedding
May 10, 1927

The Hemingway-Pfeiffer Museum and Educational Center in Piggott, Arkansas, is the former residence of Paul and Mary Pfeiffer, whose daughter Pauline was married to the great American writer Ernest Hemingway.

Pauline met Ernest and his first wife Hadley in 1925 at a party in Paris. Pauline had graduated from the University of Missouri School of Journalism in 1918 and worked for the Cleveland Press and Vanity Fair in New York before accepting a job with the Paris bureau of Vogue magazine.

After their marriage on May 10, 1927, Pauline and Ernest remained in Paris for a time, settling later in Key West, FL. During their marriage, from 1927-1940, they were frequent visitors to Piggott, and the Pfeiffers converted their barn into a studio to give Hemingway privacy for writing. It was in this unlikely spot that he wrote portions of A Farewell to Arms and various short stories.

HPMEC offers Writers' Retreats for adults, Young Authors Workshops, an annual Student Art Exhibition, and other special events.

Tours are on the hour:
Monday-Friday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Saturday 1 to 3 p.m.
